You have been authorized to complete online documents and receive electronic legal notices in connection with your registration with National Center for Safety Initiatives, LLC (NCSI). During this process, you will be asked to "sign" one or more of the online documents with an electronic signature. Please read the following carefully regarding the electronic signature process.

To sign a document electronically, click both the "I Agree" button and the "Continue" button appearing at the bottom of the document. If required, please also fill out your name and last four digits of your social security number. NOTE: Your electronic signature will not be applied to the document until you correctly complete all of these steps.

If you want to make changes in information you provided, click "Back" button on your browser. When you have completed a document that requires your electronic signature, you may use your browser to view, print, or download the document before you sign it.

Once the signature process is completed, your electronic signature will be binding as if you had physically signed the document by hand.

If you believe you are unable to provide your signature in an electronic format, contact the company directly to complete in a paper or non-electronic format. Please note delays and additional fees will apply if the process is completed in a paper/non-electronic format.

In addition, since e-mail is the most expedient method for you and NCSI to communicate with each other we are requesting your consent to use email and specifically your e-mail address provided in your application as the primary method for written communications.

If at any point you would like to withdraw your consent for your electronic signature or use of e-mail as the means for written communication, or if you need to update information needed to contact you electronically, please contact NCSI at support@ncsisafe.com. Any withdrawal of consent will be effective as of the date it is received. Please note that any withdrawal of consent does NOT apply to electronic signatures or communications that occurred prior to the effective date of withdrawal of your consent. There also may be additional fees for proceeding on a non-electronic basis after your withdrawal of consent.

Please check this box if you consent to provide an electronic signature rather than a handwritten signature in connection with any application or background screening documents and whenever you sign documents on this website or through this mobile application.

Electronic Signature: *

I/We have read, understand and agree to comply with the Electronic Communication Consent and Disclosure as outlined above.

Para información en español, visite www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore o escriba a la Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552. A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

Step 3

And you thought the legal disclosure pages were done – wrong!

The screenshot shows a web application interface for a background screening process. At the top left is the "sport engine" logo. On the right side of the top navigation bar, there is a "My Teams" dropdown menu, a chat icon, an email icon, a notification bell icon, and a user profile icon labeled "TD". Below the navigation bar, the page title is "Copley-Fairlawn Athletic Association 2022 Background Screen", accompanied by the organization's logo. A left-hand sidebar contains a list of steps: "Welcome" (checked), "Electronic Communication Consent and Disclosure" (checked), "FCRA Acknowledgement" (checked), "Disclosure" (highlighted), "Background Screening", "Review", and "Receipt". The main content area is titled "Disclosure" and shows the user "Currently Registering: Tom Dugan". The central heading is "DISCLOSURE REGARDING BACKGROUND SCREENING". The text explains that the organization may obtain information from a third-party agency and that a consumer report may affect participation. It also lists the details of the screening agency: the National Center for Safety Initiatives LLC (NCSI), located at 1853 Piedmont Road Suite 100, Marietta, GA 30066, with a phone number of 866-996-7412 and a website of www.solutions.ncsisafe.com. At the bottom of the disclosure text, there is a required field for an "Electronic Signature" and a checkbox labeled "I have read and agree to the Background Screening Disclosure above." which is currently unchecked. A blue "CONTINUE" button is located at the bottom right of the main content area.

DISCLOSURE REGARDING BACKGROUND SCREENING

Copley-Fairlawn Athletic Association ("Company") may obtain information about you from a third party consumer reporting agency for participation purposes. A consumer report is a compilation of information that might affect your ability to participate with the Company. Thus, you may be the subject of a "consumer report" which may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and/or mode of living.

These searches will be conducted by the National Center for Safety Initiatives LLC (NCSI); 1853 Piedmont Road Suite 100, Marietta, GA 30066; tel. # 866-996-7412; www.solutions.ncsisafe.com. To prepare the reports NCSI may investigate your criminal history, social security number validity, motor vehicle records, verification of your education or employment history (including income), or other information with public or private information sources.
